memory of the creating noise association in the near future regarding the matter.

The course of study in vogue in the schools at this time was described to the board members in detail. The superintendent could not make a definite roport on the success of the workstudy-play plan now being tested in Rozell school for the reason that suitable teachers had not been secured for all departments. This situation would be relieved in the near future, he stated. Details as to the work being done at the continuation school. Hope night school and the vocational school were gone into and the formation of new classes described.

Routine business coming before the board constituted a very minor part in the meeting Monday night, the addresses and discussions relative to salary increases for the teachers and improvements for Lauderdale and Cummings schools requiring the attenticy of the board until a very late hour.

It is very apparent to the board that some action will have to be taken to relieve congested conditions but the problem that the board faces is adoption of the method that will accomplish the most good with the funds that are available. This matter will doubtless be decided as soon as the report of the srchitect is submitted.

HOTEL MAY JOIN DOCTORS' BUILDING

Plans Working Out for Skyscraper at Third and Court

Another tentative hotel proposition, which is said to have great promise of materializing, has developed in connection with the erection of the proposed professional men's building at Third street and Court avenue. A syndicate of local capitalists is negotiating with the backers of the proposed doctors office building over plans by which a modern and up-to-date $1,000,000 hotel is to be erected on the same lot with the office building, as a joint building operation.

Each building is to be independent of the other as to ownership and management, but by building at the same lime and along similar types of con-struction it is believed that many econ-omies in building and operation may be obtained.

omies in building and operation may be obtained.

The site on which the doctors propose to efect their office building is 183½ feet square. They propose to use but half of the lot, which will make possible the utilization of the other half for a building the same size as they propose to erect. The syndicate proposes to build a hotel the same size as the office building, probably 16 storles, with 500 rooms.

By building together, both buildings might be heated and lighted with the same plant, and a joint lobby would serve for both buildings, thus saving much valuable space. The hotel in close proximity would also make for the convenience of out-of-town visitors who should come here for consultation with attorneys, or treatment by the physicians and deutists occupying the professional building.

The hotel syndicate is said to have already completed arrangements for fi-

The professional men interested in the new office building will meet at the courthouse Tuesday night at sociock to present the prospectus of the proposed building and formally to open the books of the company for the sale of stock.

NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The cotton market showed renewed strength with increasing activity and excitement at the opening today. Liverpool reported a big advance over the holidsy while weather and crop news showed no improvement and there was competition for small offerings of October contracts which sent the price up to 34.50c, or 160 points net higher. Other months opened at advances of 53 to 60 points, but met considerable hedge selling as well as a good deal of realising which caused a reaction from 34.20c to 23.50c sence of Buying Orders and Oats Sympathize.

GRAIN MARKETS

CHICAGO, Oct. 14. — Pronounced weakness developed in the corn market oday as a result of an unusual ab-sence of buying orders. This condition was attributed more or less to un-certainty created by the longshure-men's strike in New York. Opening prices which ranged from 4, to 14c lower with December $1.11\to 10 $11.25\to and May $1.20\to 10.25\to were fol-lowed by a material further setback. Oats took a downward swing with corn. After opening unchanged to 4c off including December at 70\to to 70\to the market underwent a decided general fall.

Lower quotations on hogs and grain

Weakness in Corn Follows Ab- Uncertainty as to Industrial Conditions Occasion for Early Dip in Stocks.

> NEW YORK, Oct. 14. Developmen over the double boliday, especially it the industrial situation, probably to counted for the confusion of specula counted for the confusion of specula-tive sentiment at the opening of ta-day's stock market. Moters and oils which featured lest Saturday's spec-facular advance were one to six points lower, with steem and equipments. Shipping and ralls forfeited one to two points and tobaccos led the heavy spe-cialties. The reaction made further bendway within the first half hour's trading.

The more severe losses of the morning were further reduced or altogether cancelled at midday. Motors and olle continued to raily General Motors repeating its recent high record. Shippings, tobacco, leather and find shares also strengthening materially with high-grade rails.

At lighest levels of the afternoon motors and oils were considerably over last week's final quotations. Prices resected violently, however, and when call loans rose to 12 per cent the closing was weak.

ALL CENTRAL EUROPE SEEMS BUSY MOVING

BUDAPEST, Oct. 14.—All Central Europe seems on the move. In a railway journey from the eastern Swiss boundary across German Austria, parts of Czecho-Słovakia and as far into Poland as Warsaw and Lemburg, back into Austria proper, and thence to this city, an Associated Press correspondent Law dozens of long trains crawded even heyond the capacity of the cars, and with every platform filled with men, woman and children, and the nondescript baggage of the European peasant, Bundies and chests and cloth bags and paper packages, straw and wicker baskels, rope tied, were strapped on every available space.

Where the people are going or why no one seems to know. It is suparently a general reshifting and milling about of the population.

The trains themselves are wretched enough. There is not a passenger car in Europe that has not been used for troops trunsport. They are filliby beyond words, nearly all the glass gone and the windows filled with rough boards or rusty sheets of iron or tin. The paint has long since gone, and some still bear the faded lines of early war camouflage. Lubricating oil is one of the scarcest of commodities in these regions and the cars creak along over trusted rails, drawn by shabby engines. Teavel is a hazard. Schedules are virtually nonexistent and these uncertain trains creep along as the fuel supply permits. Stops in desolate country regions of hours at a time are not unusual and in mont parts the railway buffets that once supplied the travery with meals are closed, so that it is imperative to carry one's own provisions. A passenger on one of the forient express trains said that at one point in perative to carry ane's own provisions.

A passenger on one of the Orient express trains said that at one point in Scuthern Europe the conductor took up a collection from passengers to buy wood for the locomotive.

SOUTHERN RUSSIANS LEAVE NATIVE LAND

BELGRADE, Oct. 14.—There has been a constantly increasing exodus of refugees from Southern Russia during the past four months. Driven from their homes by the disorder and unrest there these unhappy people have wandered into Russian and Serbia, where the problem of handling their own people is already enormous. About lifteen per cent of the appeals received by the American Red Cross at Beigrade during the past mouth have been on behalf of Russians.

The Serbians have been very kind to these visitors. The newspapers and billboards are filled with appeals for "Brother Russians" and for the "Children of Serbia's Ally." Yet the Serbians have little to give, and the problem of caring for a great influx of cutsiders is a vertous one.

Many of these South Russians are people of considerable means, who have brought with them large quantities of the local currency of the provinces from which they come. But their rubles are of small value in the eyes of the money changers of the Balkan towns, and the plight of the "ruble millionalre" is little better than that of the penniless refuge. The majority have been passed on to look for work in the farming districts. Two thousand flocked to Belgrade.

American Red Cross units in all parts of the Balkans report similar influxes.

American Red Cross units in all parts of the Balkans report similar influxes of South Russlans. A large amount of clothing has also been distributed to them at Satoniki and at Athens. There are 5,000 of them in the latter city. About 23,000 Russlans have entered Russlans The Balkan governments hope to find some way of stemming this exodus from Russia during the next few weeks, and even to repatriate a large number as soon as the restoration of normal con-ditions in the Odesan districts makes such a step possible. FIND SISTERS' BODIES.
